

Business Licenses Type

This presentation explains various license types. Choose the right one for your business needs.

BUSINESS PREMISES

Business Premises & Advertising

Premises License

Required for operating a business at a physical location. Ensures compliance with local regulations.

Advertising License

Needed to display commercial advertisements. This includes banners, signboards, and bountings in public areas.

Mobile & Temporary Operations

Hawker License

For selling goods or food from mobile stalls or pushcarts. Limited to approved locations.

Night Market / Lambak

Authorizes stalls in night markets or "pasar lambak." Follows council-regulated areas and times.

Temporary Permit

A short-term license for businesses or stalls. Ideal for festivals or special events.

Specialized Permits

Dog License

Permit for legally owning and registering dogs. Required by local authorities for pet owners.

Banner & Bunting

Permission to set up temporary banners, canopies, or display buntings. For business or events.

Seasonal Fruits

Short-term license for selling fruits like durian or rambutan. Valid only during specific fruiting seasons.

Outdoor Space Utilization

Five-Foot Way Goods

Permit for placing goods, items, or displays. Allowed on the pedestrian walkway in front of premises.

Chairs and Tables

Approval for restaurants or eateries. Allows placing dining tables and chairs on sidewalks or outdoor areas.

License Management Process

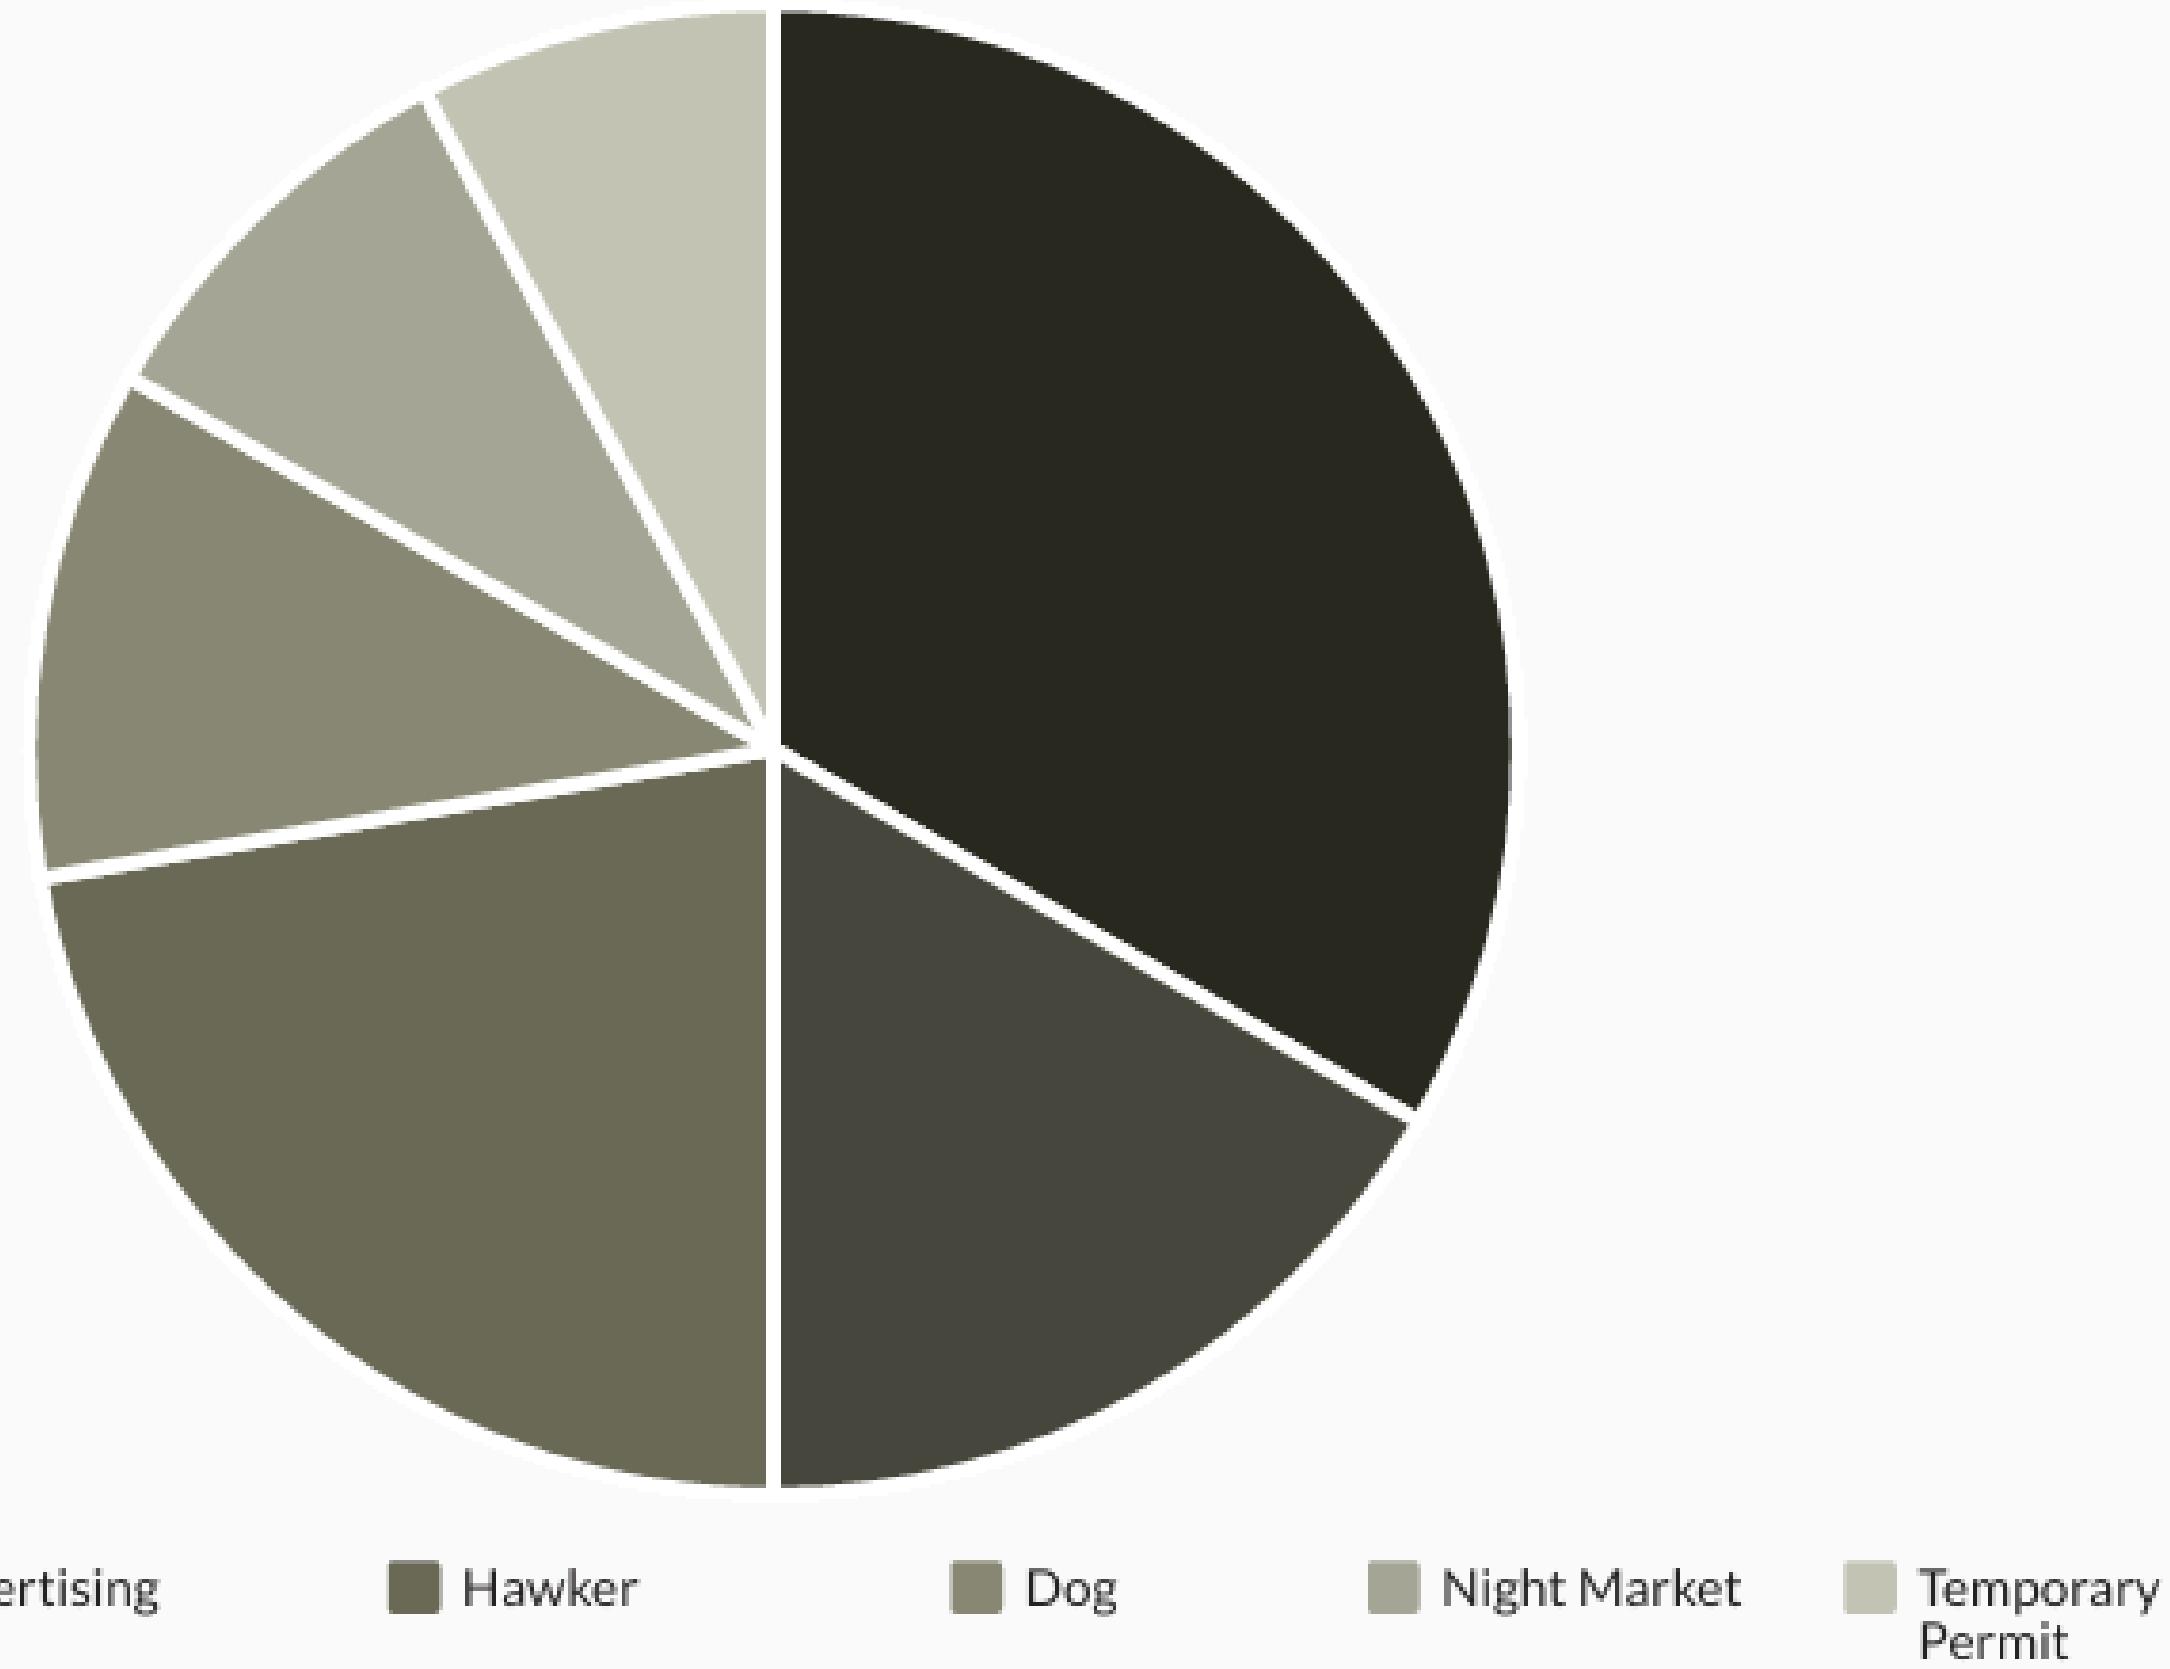

Cancellation

Officially cancel or terminate existing licenses. Applies to advertising or hawker licenses.

Return Trust Money

Formal application to claim back deposit money. Held by the local council after license expiry or cancellation.

Understanding License Types

Different license types serve various business needs. Premises and hawker licenses are among the most common.